1.1.87
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, August 27, 2003
www.NewCovenant.me

1. Fulfill your obligations, walk in integrity, walk in integrity—how else can they see Me in Mine? I walk in integrity, I am integrity, I fulfill My obligations and I fulfill My word, and Ted, My Mine must also.

2. My body must grasp and deeply understand that to walk in integrity is a prerequisite for My fullness of Me to flow in the design I have for them. I don't like wimps and weasels who find excuses and point fingers and create blame to justify their weakness, their weaknesses of core values of My kingdom.

3. Walk in integrity and call My body to walk in integrity, integrity displayed—integrity true, for I see all and I know all and he who hides himself from his own flesh hides to his hurt, his detriment, his delay, his diversion, and ultimately, often, his destruction.

4. That's why I've stated clearly and called you consistently to integrity, to transparency, to open book be, and teach the power of this to others.

5. Fulfill your word, care for your words, care for your signature and what you agree to, and careful be to walk before Me and Mine—before My body, with My body, in integrity of spirit—which permeates all.

6. Ted, cautious be and condemn not. I convict, you construct, you construct the framework for understanding for truth to enter and be received and I do My part. Don't try to do what I only can do. Be you, and tender be with compassion always for those hurt and hurting—regardless of the cause.

7. I am lifting and healing and touching and creating and correcting and judging the maturity seeker—who will seek My judgment, now, and make mid-course corrections as I touch and correct and whisper so tenderly.

8. I love you and I love all My Mine—even the error-filled, and pandemonium-creating, cross-bearers who do things in My name but know Me not deeply.

9. I love you and I love the perverse and perverted and hurting-mighty. I love the Godly and righteous and Ted, I love My creation.

10. Walk in integrity with My creation and compel My creation to walk in integrity with Me, and with each other. Nuance-causing-division—defeat. Reflect Me to Mine and shine, shine—exemplify Me and happy be.

11. I love you. I walk with you this day. Smile. Enjoy your meetings—enjoy My people trying to please Me so desperately—share Me, share love, share all. Withhold none of Me from any of My Mine.

I love you.
I thank you.
I am with you.